

MDM35 Leadership for Health and Social Care Professionals

Course Overview

This 5 day course is part of the IPGM portfolio and designed for managers, health and social care professionals and medical specialists, in leadership positions. It can be taken as part of a University course or for continuing professional development purposes (CPD) and runs twice a year.

Who should attend

- Clinical Leaders
- Senior Health Professionals
- Service Managers
- Social Care Practitioners

Time and place

Semester One

24-25 September 2009
13-15 October 2009

Semester Two

13-14 April 2010
12-14 May 2010
University of Brighton Falmer campus

Module Leader

Breda Flaherty, Senior Lecturer in Professional Development.

Topics

- Leadership Experience: stories and experience of leadership roles and leading teams and services
- The Context: commissioning, service user engagement, local priority setting and national politics, clinician engagement
- Managing Change: teamwork, strategy and implementation, uncertainty, creativity
- Leadership, Management and Change: leadership/management continuum, leadership theories, transactional/transformational leadership, adaptive leadership
- Ethics and Values: ethics, values, professionalism
- Leadership Styles: leadership styles/traits/skills/diagnostic tools
- Consolidation

Participants' comments

'Inspirational teaching'

'Interesting mix of academic theory and creativity'

'I've developed in stature and confidence in all sorts of ways'

'Extremely supportive, informative and relevant to my work'.

Application form

For further information and/or an application form, please contact the programme administrator, Claire Martin, on:

Tel: 01273 643917

Email: ipgm@bsms.ac.uk

Website: www.bsms.ac.uk/ipgm