

MDM52 Renal Pathophysiology

Who should attend

- SpRs
- Members of the Renal Team with a first degree or 5 years Renal experience

Module Leader:

Dr Chris Kingswood, BSUH, NHS Trust

Time and Place

16-20 November 2009

University of Brighton's Falmer Campus

Fees

For information on fees please email:
fees@brighton.ac.uk

This module can be taken for continuing professional development (CPD) and also as 20 Masters level credits towards the Postgraduate Certificate, Postgraduate Diploma or Masters award.

Topics covered

- Autoimmune systemic disease
- Chronic kidney disease
- Glomerular diseases
- Renal tubular disorders
- Interstitial renal disease
- Heredity & genetics
- Renal stone disease
- Nephrotic syndrome
- Hyperfiltration nephropathy
- Polycystic kidney disease
- Diabetic renal disease
- Hypertension
- End stage renal failure
- Disorders of fluid, electrolyte and acid base regulation
- Other systemic diseases affecting the kidney

Application form

For further information and/or an application form, please contact the programme administrator, Emily Pitt, on:

Tel: 01273 644003

Email: ipgm@bsms.ac.uk

Website: www.bsms.ac.uk/ipgm

