

MDM54 Advanced Kidney Disease (previously End Stage Renal Failure)

Overview

This intensive module which runs over one week aims specifically to strengthen and extend your existing knowledge and understanding of different methods of treatment in the patient with end-stage renal failure, including pre-dialysis care, haemodialysis, peritoneal dialysis, renal transplantation and palliative care.

The module can be taken for continuing professional development (CPD) and also as a 20 Master's level credits towards the Postgraduate Certificate, Postgraduate Diploma or Masters award.

Who is this module intended for?

- SpRs
- Members of the Renal Team with a first degree or 5 years Renal experience

Module Leader:

Dr Adam MacDiarmid-Gordon
Consultant Nephrologist, BSUH

Time and Place

21-25 June 2010
Royal Sussex County Hospital, Brighton

Topics covered:

- Management of people with chronic renal failure approaching dialysis
- Dialysis access
- Clinical and scientific aspects of modes of dialysis
- Choice and change of dialysis systems
- Dialysis adequacy
- Non-dialysis management of dialysis patients
- Role of the multi-disciplinary/multi-professional team
- Nutrition
- Selection for transplantation
- Principle aspects of cadaver and live donor transplantation
- Pharmacology
- Social and ethical aspects of care
- Palliative care
- Service provision – optimising services
- Standards and registry used in renal diseases

Application form

For further information and/or an application form, please contact the programme administrator, Emily Pitt, on:

Tel: 01273 644003

Email: ipgm@bsms.ac.uk

Website: www.bsms.ac.uk/ipgm

For further information on fees please contact: fees@brighton.ac.uk

