

Advanced Physical Health Update for Psychiatrists

Brief course overview

This course will cover identification and management of common physical health disorders in psychiatry, in line with the 2017 CQUIN goal of 'Improving physical healthcare to reduce premature mortality in people with severe mental illness'. This course will provide practical advice and guidance on diagnostic guidelines, when to initiate treatment, prescribing, medications and associated side effects.

Topics

- diabetes
- high blood pressure
- cardiovascular disease

Who should attend?

Consultant Psychiatrists and SAS doctors in all psychiatry specialties.

Certification

Certification for 6 hours CPD will be provided to attendees.

Who will teach it?

This course will be led by Dr Richard Whale and Dr Jason Read and taught by clinical specialists and university lecturers from relevant disciplines.

Where and when will it run?

9.30am- 4.30pm
Wednesday 6th November 2019
Falmer Campus, University of Brighton

How much will it cost?

£150
Includes lunch, refreshments & parking
(subject to limited availability)

Where to register?

bit.ly/BSMS_AdvPhysHealth2019

Where to find out more info

bsms.ac.uk/PsychiatryCPD

Contact

cpd@bsms.ac.uk