

Inclusion Health Day 2021

Overview

The annual BSMS Inclusion Health Day returns 9am-1pm on Thursday, 21st October 2021, this year with the theme 'Changing Perceptions of Inclusion Health'

Topics

Our 6th Inclusion Health Day will focus on groups who may not be traditionally represented in Inclusion Health, with the aim of changing perceptions and encouraging inclusive working practices

Topics include:

- Healthcare for Migrants and Asylum Seekers
- What happens to frail elderly men on release from prison?
- What can we learn about stigma from other groups?
- How working with peers can change the way we work

With input from nationally recognised leaders in their fields and experts by experience, delegates will have time for discussion, reflection and networking

Who should attend

Everyone who is concerned with the health of people who face barriers to accessing healthcare. This event is particularly aimed at healthcare, support, and key workers, service managers, planners and commissioners

Academic Leads

Dr Chris Sargeant,
