

Forensic Psychiatry Update

Brief course overview

This one day update on forensic risk assessment and management will cover new developments in risk assessments, guidelines and applied science, as relevant for continuing professional development of mental health professionals dealing with risk issues.

Topics

- Overview of risk factors for violence in context of mental health
- Principles of forensic risk assessment and management
- Use of structured professional judgment tools in risk assessment
- Risk reduction and multi-agency working

Who should attend?

All clinical mental health professionals, including psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, nursing staff and OTs.

Accreditation/Certification

Certification for 6 hours CPD will be provided to attendees

Who will teach it?

This course will be led by Consultant Forensic Psychiatrists Dr Jake Harvey and Dr Moustafa Saoud, and taught by clinical specialists from relevant disciplines

Where and when will it run?

9.45am - 4.30pm

Wednesday 23rd January 2019

Falmer Campus, University of Brighton

How much will it cost?

External rate: £200

SPFT staff: £150

(funding can be applied for via Education & Training)

Includes lunch, refreshments & parking (subject to limited availability)

Where to register?

bit.ly/BSMS_Forensic2019

Where to find out more info

bsms.ac.uk/PsychiatryCPD

Contact

cpd@bsms.ac.uk