

Psychopharmacology Update

Brief course overview

This one day technology update in pharmacological interventions for adult psychiatric disorders will cover new developments in therapeutics, guidelines and applied science, as relevant for continuing professional development of clinical prescribers and pharmacists.

Topics

Topics covered are likely to include interventions for:

- Bipolar Disorder
- Substance Misuse Disorders
- Depressive Disorder
- Dementia
- Perinatal Psychopharmacology

Who should attend?

All clinical prescribers and pharmacists.

Certification

A certificate of attendance will be provided to attendees.

Who will teach it?

This course will be led by Dr Richard Whale, Principle Lecturer and Consultant Psychiatrist, and taught by clinical specialists from relevant disciplines.

Where and when will it run?

Thursday 23rd May 2019
9.45am - 4.30pm (exact times TBC)
Sussex Education Centre,
Mill View Hospital, Hove BN3 7HZ

How much will it cost?

£125 (includes a light sandwich lunch)

Where to register?

bit.ly/BSMS_Psychopharm2019

Where to find out more info

bsms.ac.uk/PsychiatryCPD

Contact

C.A.Martin@brighton.ac.uk or cpd@bsms.ac.uk